 Subject: New York Here I Come!

Dear Judy,

I can't believe I am visiting you in New York next month! I am getting ready for the trip. 41 I looked it up on the Net. It says summer there is not as hot as Taiwan. Does it 42 in the afternoon like here? I hope the weather is 43 the whole time, and I can put on my new sunglasses!

I'm so happy about this trip! Taking a trip to New York City is always a dream for a lot of people. It was a fishing town a long time ago. 44 fishermen from all around the world, the French, the English, and more. They did business here and turned the town into a big city as we see today. I can't wait to see it myself and try all the different food in 45. Do you want anything from Taiwan? Let me know and I will see you soon!

Your friend,
Sammy

Who does the housework in your family? Your father, mother or grandparents? About 40% of the students in Taiwan never do the housework. A study shows that. Let's look at the following three students.

Yesterday was Sunday. It was a rainy day. Sandy and her sister were at home with their parents. They are junior high school students. Sandy usually cleans the room, does the dishes, and takes out the trash. Her sister, Mandy, seldom does the housework. She likes to watch TV in her free time.

Sam is an eleven-year-old student. His parents are busy. He mops the floor on Mondays and Fridays. He does the dishes for his family every day, too.

What about you? Are you like Sandy, Mandy, or Sam? From now on, let's do some housework every day. After all, we are a part of our families.
