Last weekend, I spent one night preparing for my English test, but finally I failed it. I remember Joyce, my hard-working classmate, told me a fable called The Ant and the Grasshopper. The grasshopper in the story had a good time every day and didn't save food for the future, so he got hungry in winter. I never planned for the future, just like the grasshopper in the story. Joyce wanted me to work hard every day, like the ant in the story. I really learned a lesson and made up my mind to have good study habits.

46. What happened to the boy after he prepared for the test ?
(A) He got a good grade in English.
(B) He didn't do well on the English test.
(C) His English satisfied him.
(D) He won't study English after the test.
47. Has the boy decided to change himself ?
(A) Yes, he made up his mind to study hard.
(B) No. It's his first time to fail in the test.
(C) Yes, he wanted to tell stories to others.
(D) Yes, because he likes grasshoppers.
