Emily Dickson is one of the greatest poets in the world. She wrote poems with short words. She was born in 1830 in the USA. Through her life, she seldom left her home and visitors there were few. Emily's poems are short and simple to read, but they have something important behind the words. Here is one of my favorite Emily's poems.
 Hope is the thing with feathers
 That perches in the soul,
 And sings the tune without the words,
 And never stops at all,
 And sweetest in the gale is heard;
 And sore must be the storm
 That could abash the little bird
 That kept so many warm.
 I've heard it in the chilliest land;
 And on the strangest sea;
 Yet, never, in extremity,
 It asked a crumb of me.

_____ gale 微風 perch 棲息 abash 使窘迫 extremity 逆境 crumb 碎屑

Thailand is a very big country. It's very hot in Asia. There are over 68 million people in Thailand. The eating habits in Thailand are quite different from ours.

試題結束

In Thailand, food itself is very important. People like eating together. Many Thai people think that it is bad luck to eat alone. Families like to eat out. They usually share many different dishes. Thai people do not eat the dishes in any special order. After the meal is over, there is no such thing as throwing food away because it is bad for the Thai "god of rice." When eating out, a group of Thai people would order many kinds of meat or fish dishes with vegetables, a noodle dish, and also soup. Desserts may be fresh fruit, such as pineapples or colorful rice cakes. The presentation of food is very important, too. Food should look nice on the plate. Some dishes often have vegetables which are made into beautiful shapes. Thai food presentation is the most beautiful in the world. Although the Chinese brought chopsticks to Thailand long ago, today most Thai people like to use forks and spoons to eat. The spoon is held in the right hand and used instead of knife. When eating, Thai people eat one dish at a time. Bowls are used for soup in place of a plate.
