二、閱讀理解(每題 2 分，共 38 分)

(32~35)

Several years ago, all cellphones were very expensive. Only rich people could own them. Now most people can afford one and like to use it in many different ways. People make phone calls, take pictures, play games, and surf the Internet on their phones.

Using cellphones can not only make life easier but also cause(造成) problems. For example, when cellphones ring in public places, like classrooms, movie theaters, and museums, people are bothered(打擾). Also, driving and using cellphones at the same time can cause serious accidents(事故). What's more, there are different forms of social media, like Facebook and Line. Because students spend lots of time on it, they can't pay attention to their studies. So cellphones are useful only when you use them wisely.

32. What does afford in line 3 mean?
(A) Do something funny.
(B) Do two things at the same time.
(C) Donate money to the poor.

- (D) Have enough money to buy something.
33. How does the writer feel about cellphones?
(A) There are both good and bad things about cellphones.
(B) Using cellphones is better for people's health.
(C) They're nice to be used in theaters.
(D) They are of no help at all.
34. What can't we do with cellphones from the reading?
(A) Reach others. (B) Take a test.
(C) Get much information. (D) Take photos.
35. Which is TRUE?
(A) Today cellphones are only for the rich.
(B) Only students can use cellphones in public places.
(C) Cellphones are used to make life easier.
(D) Drivers can drive and use cellphones at the same time..

(36~38)

I saw you toss(拋) the kites on high
And blow the birds about the sky;
And all around I heard you pass,
Like ladies' skirts across the grass--
O wind, a-blowing all day long,
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

I saw the different things you did,
But always you yourself you hid.
I felt you push, I heard you call,
I could not see yourself at all--
O wind, a-blowing all day long,
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

O you that are so strong and cold,
O blower, are you young or old?
Are you a beast(野獸) of field and tree,
Or just a stronger child than me?
O wind, a-blowing all day long,
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

from the poem by Robert Louis Stevenson

36. Who is the speaker(說話者) in this poem?
(A) A bird. (B) An old man. (C) A tree. (D) A child.
37. Who is "you" in this poem?
(A) The wind. (B) The sun. (C) A singer. (D) A hand.
38. According to(根據) the poem, which is NOT true?
(A) The speaker can hear "you" make loud sound.
(B) The speaker thinks that "you" is very strong.
(C) The speaker sees "you" walk on the grass in a skirt.
(D) The speaker doesn't really know what "you" look like.

(39~41)

A birthday is usually a happy time for everyone, but at one point in history, it was thought to be the most dangerous in a person's life. People believed that both good and bad spirits would show up(出現) when a baby was born(出生). People had to be careful on their birthday because the bad spirits were able to hurt people when they became older.

To protect themselves from the bad spirits, people would stay with friends and family members on their birthday. A party would be held to scare the bad spirits away. Gifts were also important because they were thought to bring good luck to the birthday person.

Birthday cakes were also from age-old superstitions. Small things were put in the cake. When people at the party found something in their piece of cake, they knew what their future would be like. Finding money, for example, meant that the person would be rich, but a button(鈕扣) in one's cake meant that they would be short of money in the following year.

Today, the meaning of celebrating birthdays has changed, but people's wish is still the same. We all wish to live a healthy and happy life.

39. According to(根據) the reading, what did people believe in the past?

- (A) Birthday parties were very dangerous.
- (B) A person would have a birthday party.
- (C) Good spirits were more dangerous than the bad ones.
- (D) Bad spirits would hurt babies when they were born.

40. What was the most important reason(理由) for people to have birthday parties in old times?

- (A) To know something about their future.
- (B) To have meals with their family and friends.
- (C) To keep the bad spirits away from them.
- (D) To give birthday presents to each other.

41. Which is NOT true?

- (A) Good and bad spirits would both show up when people were born.
- (B) A person would be poor the next year if he or she found a button in the cake.
- (C) Gifts could bring the birthday person good luck.
- (D) The meaning of celebrating birthdays is still the same.
