Good morning, everyone. This is your reporter, Charlie Lee. In Green Town, it was snowy this morning. The snow and the freezing rain made people late for work and school. Because of the heavy snow last night, some of the trains had to stop running. When the freezing rain came after the snow, cars might slide off the roads. For people's safety, some roads were closed. Today, winds from the North Pole keep blowing, so the temperature is very low.

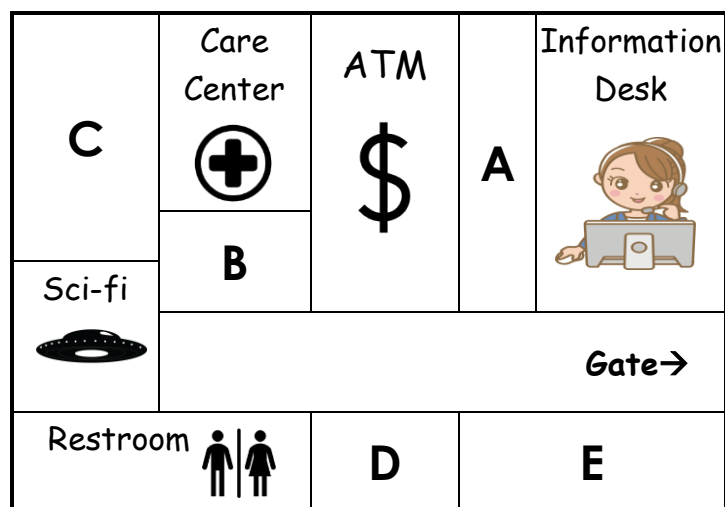

Remember to keep warm before going out. That's it for today's report. I'm Charlie Lee. Have a good day.
