Isn't My Name Magical?

By James Berry

Nobody can see my name on me.

My name is inside

and all over me, unseen

like other people also keep it.

Isn't my name magic?

My name is mine only.

It tells I am unique,

and it represents who I am.

If I'm with hundreds of people and my name gets called,

my sound switches me on to answer

like it was my human electricity.

Isn't that magical?

My name echoes across playground,

it comes, it has my attention.

I have to find out who calls,

who wants me for what.

My name gets blurted out in class,

it is a terror, at a bad time,

because somebody is cross.

My name gets called in a low voice

I am happy, because

my name may have touched me

with a loving voice.

Isn't it all magic?
