五、閱讀測驗 (10%)

I.

The Earth is crying, can't you hear?
Her forests lost, her waters unclear,
Once green and full, now turning brown,
The trees are falling, no one's around.

The air is thick, the sky is gray,
We've harmed the world in so many ways.
But if we act, if we decide,
We can heal her, step by stride.

Plant a tree, clean the air,
Reduce the waste, show you care.
The Earth will thank you, don't you see,
A greener tomorrow, for you and me.

 unclear 不清澈，thick 厚，harm 傷害，heal 治療，stride 大步走，reduce 減少

Siena is a very old city in the north of Italy. It began with a small group of people living on its hills more than 2,900 years ago. By the year 1100, it had become an important business center. In 1472, the world's first bank, Monte dei Paschi di Siena, was set up here. It is also known as the world's oldest bank. To everyone's surprise, this bank is still running today.

Siena is also famous for keeping its old look. Its city walls once helped to keep the city safe. Now, they are still there and look almost the same as before. Siena's main square, Piazza del Campo, has also changed very little. People still visit to chat, shop and play sports. One more thing to keep Siena's old look is that cars cannot enter the city most of the time.

True, Siena is old, but it is beautifully old. People are welcome to visit this beautiful city and walk into the past.
