She walks in beauty, like the night
Of cloudless places and starry skies.
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her look and her eyes.
Thus mellowed to that tender light
Which heaven to ugly day denies.

One shade the more, one ray the less
Had half hurt the nameless beauty
Which waves in every tress,
Or softly lightens over her face
Where thoughts quietly show

How pure, how dear their living-place,
And on that cheeks, and over that face,
So soft, so calm, yet powerful.

The smiles that win, the colors that shine,
But tell of days in goodness spent,
A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is pure!

(Adapted from a poem by Lord Byron)

Dear Miss Wu,

Time flies! I’m going to graduate soon. Before that, I really want to say thanks to you. I was not a polite student in my seventh and eighth grade. I hated studying. I fought with people every day. Sometimes, I even stole things from my classmates. 43. I have made so many mistakes, you never give up on me.

I don’t like everything in school except your English and writing class. Remember you sent me a novel called “An Ocean of Minutes”? The story is about a lady’s plan of saving her boyfriend through time travel. 44., what the book affects me the most is not time travel, but that every decision changes your future. From then on, I decided to live the moment.

You once told me 45. I’m the most talented students in all your classes and you really love the stories I wrote. Do you know 46.? Because of your encouragement, I started to study more and work harder on English. I want to write good stories for more people to read. I’m not sure 47., but I’ll try my best. You are the one who surely change my life. Thank you.

Wish you all the best and love.

Sincerely,
Edward

45. (A) which    (B) whether    (C) that    (D) what
46. (A) why I don’t go to school anymore
(B) why I give up learning
(C) why I think studying is boring
(D) why I want to be a writer
47. (A) whether will I win
(B) if I will succeed
(C) when can I become a writer
(D) where I might visit

Actor Will Smith smacked the host Chris Rock at The 2022 Academy Awards, also known as the Oscars, after Rock made a joke about Smith’s wife’s hair. Smith stood up, walked up to Rock, and smacked him. Chris Rock was a bit shocked but didn’t get hurt. After returning to his seat, Smith said something bad loudly to Rock. Shortly after that, Will Smith won the Oscar for the best actor for ‘King Richard’.

Will Smith did have a reason to be angry. In 2018, Smith’s wife, Jada Pinkett, said that she’d been diagnosed with a hair-loss disease that can affect the scalp and the whole body. Pinkett has been troubled by the disease for nearly five years and often feels upset about it. Though Smith’s act seemed to be understandable, it was not a good idea to hurt people in public, especially in a world-famous ceremony that people around the world paid much attention to. Smith will not be allowed to join the Academy Awards for the next 10 years, as a result of using violence during this year’s Oscar ceremony.

Many people think that both sides did not do well. Rock shouldn’t make fun of the look of Pinkett and Will Smith shouldn’t use violence to show his anger, for that was not a matured adult should act.

一、 辨識句意：

1. W: David, could you please take out the garbage after you finish doing your homework?
2. W: Tony was talking with his classmate while the teacher was angrily looking at him.
3. W: Jacob hasn't decided where to have lunch with his friends this Friday.
4. M: Reading is so interesting. Why not give it a try? Pick one book and spend some time reading it when you have free time.
5. M: Do you think it is possible to travel to outer space in the future?

二、 基本問答：

6. Were you doing your homework when I went into your room last night?
7. What did the news say about the young man?
8. Have you decided whether you will go hiking with us next week?
9. Do you know when Harry Potter was written? It is the most interesting story I've ever read.
10. That is the coffee shop where you met your husband, isn't it?

三、 言談理解：

11. W: Henry, try to follow me. You are falling behind on each step.
M: Okay... I don't know dancing is so hard. When I go past the park at night, people who dance there look so free. I don't know dancing is so hard until I start doing it.
W: It is not easy at all. But if you practice more, you will find dancing is interesting. Practice makes perfect. Well, keep moving your body again and follow my steps.
Q: What are the man and woman doing now?
12. M: Helen, did you watch the badminton game last night?
W: Of course, I did. I was so nervous in the beginning because the two teams were so close. But Lee Yang and Wang Chi-Lin played better and better and finally won the game.

M: Yes, they did. All of our family members were touched when they won the Olympic gold medal.

W: I felt so proud of them. They did pretty well this time. I hope more and more people can support them.

Q: What did Helen and the man do last night?

13.W: It is seven o'clock. Wake up, Peter.

B: It is still early. I want to sleep, please.

W: It is late. Get up and put on your uniform quickly. I will leave early because I have an important meeting in the office. If you don't hurry, I won't drive you to school. You'll need to take a bus by yourself.

B: Okay. But where are my glasses? I can't find them.

W: You should look for them yourself. I can't do everything for you.

Q: Which is true from the conversation?

14.W: What happened to your left leg, Max?

M: I broke it yesterday while I was riding my bike in the park.

W: How come?

M: I heard someone calling my name, and I turned round to check. I didn't notice there was a stone ahead of me, so I fell down.

W: Did you go to see the doctor?

M: Yes, I think I have to be more careful next time.

Q: What happened to Max yesterday?

15.W: Grandpa, have you ever been to Africa?

M: Yes, I was there on business thirty years ago, but I got badly hurt in a car accident. When I was sent to the hospital, I met a lady who came from Taiwan, and she was working there as a nurse.

W: Is she Grandma?

M: Yes.

W: How romantic!

M: After I came back to Taiwan, I wrote her a letter every day. One year later, I went there again and married your grandma in a church near that hospital. Oh, I really missed the days in Africa. In fact, I'm planning to take her to Africa next month. But I haven't told her yet.

W: Cool! I believe you guys will have a nice trip.

Q: What is Grandpa telling his granddaughter?
